Golden Knight Gala:

Kingswood is an independent school and received no funding from the state of Illinois, Diocese of Joliet, or any other outside institution. The cost of Kingswood education exceeds the price of tuition and fundraising is a very important part of the annual budget. Every year Kingswood hosts a Golden Knight Gala, which is the largest fundraising event of the school year. Kingswood parents are strongly encouraged to attend the Gala, invite family and friends, and to volunteer their time and talent to help make the Gala a great success.

Tuition Discounts:

Discount for siblings in grades K through 8th are available and listed on page 1.

There is a $1,000 surcharge for Pre-K students (Pre-K tuition = $6,900) due to the fact that we typically need an assistant teacher in Pre-K to satisfy state requirements.

Pre-K students are not part of the sibling discounts or the new family discount.

Financial Aid:

Financial Aid is available to all families who qualify and only to their children enrolled in a 5 full day program.

To apply for Financial Aid:

ALL families must apply through Empower IL (<https://empowerillinois.org/>)

--If you do not qualify then apply through TADS
